OUR MISSION

To empower Africans by facilitating access to genuine international opportunities through professionalism, transparency, and integrity.

Founder's Story

Qawl Nzakaha began his journey as a student in India in 2015, where he became deeply involved in educational marketing and student recruitment. He built strong partnerships with leading Indian universities including KL University, Vignan University, and Nova College, gaining firsthand experience in international admissions and African student mobility (South Africa, Zimbabwe, Rwanda, Mozambique, DRC, Uganda, Tanzania, Malawi, Zambia). Back in Burundi, he served as Operations Director, IT Specialist, and Recruitment Coordinator before founding Afriwriters in 2024 to open global doors for African talent.

> India Experience
